Memorable Moments in Diocesan History - 1820 Bicentennial 2020 – 200 years Diocesan Stories of the heroism of Virginia Catholics in past epidemics

Bon Secours De Paul Medical Center remains the oldest hospital in Norfolk. During World War II, De Paul Hospital provided placements for Jewish physicians fleeing Nazi Germany. In the years following World War II, Catholic healthcare in Virginia expanded to include Maryview Hospital in Portsmouth, Mary Immaculate Hospital in Newport News, and St. Mary’s Hospital in Richmond. Although Catholics have not always been warmly welcomed in Virginia, our presence here has been good for the health of the state.

Child of Immigrants Makes Good! Congratulations to Verence Marcias who is graduating from Gretna High School with an Advanced Diploma, and graduating from DCC for Cosmetology! Verence plans to go to CVCC to continue her education, and then onto a University. She is working hard to save money, and plans to apply for as many scholarships as she can to reach this goal. She told Fr. Jim, "I'm just glad that you and everyone at church is safe and doing well." Let's pray for this hard working young lady.
