Memorable Moments in Diocesan History - 1820 Bicentennial 2020 – 200 years

The diocese of Richmond grew rapidly following World War II, as many Northern Catholics moved South, seeking military or government work (if our parish is any indication, nothing has changed). In Protestant Virginia, these Catholic transplants were often unable to find Catholic spouses. By 1944, Catholic-Protestant “mixed” or “ecumenical” marriages accounted for 60% of all marriages conducted in the diocese. In fact, from 1944 to the present, the ecumenical marriage has remained numerically the norm, rather than the exception, in our diocese.

Are you curious about the Catholic Church? Why are Catholics always helping the poor? Why do they have the Lord's Supper or Communion every Sunday? And what is all this stuff about Mary? Call us at St. Victoria Catholic Church at 434-238-7030 or E-Mail us at Jimg301@juno.com. Classes for those interested begin in late September. Maybe you are already a Catholic but were never ‘Confirmed’. Contact us. We are here for you.

Christian Formation Resources: For the whole parish, and especially those in religious education ministries; Katy Bowden and Ginna Haske (who coordinate Christian Formation at Holy Cross) will be happy to offer themselves as resources if the need arises. You can contact them at: kbowden@holycrosslynchburg.org or ghaske@holycrosslynchburg.org. Also, Saint Thomas More is an additional resource that we have access to.

Second Collection for Victims of Beirut

By this time, you have read or seen on the news that there was a terrible explosion in Beirut, Lebanon....300,000 people were made homeless. To that end, there will be a second basket put out at our masses for a collection to assist the victims.
