This Advent we are concentrating on Jesus as, the Healer of Our Every Ill; soul, body, division and despair.

Our pegboard cross shown here is a receptacle for those seeking confidential special prayers. You write your requests on a provided post-it note , roll it up and insert into one of the holes. They will remain in place until the beginning of Lent, and will then be burned with the palms for our ashes. During each Mass, the congregation will be asked to include these special confidential prayers as part the Prayers of the Faithful.

May this Advent be a healing experience for all of us and our Nation.

To accommodate those of you who would like to participate in this special opportunity for private prayer, the church will be open each Monday from 11:00am to 4:00pm, and Thursday 4:30pm to 6:30pm. ALL COVID precautions apply any time you enter the Church property. Refer to the Banner at either entrance door.
