Merry Christmas! Many thanks! Many blessings to you all! Because of your generosity in taking Angels, making donations, shopping, wrapping, packing food boxes, loading and delivering to the car and even some to homes, and all your prayers, St. Victoria Catholic Church helped 22 families to have a brighter Christmas this year and experience God's love. The 22 families included 4 families Food Baskets only, 1 family Angel Gifts only, and 17 families Food Baskets and Angel Gifts. We had 56 children receiving Angel gifts this year. Ten families with 25 Angels came from Hurt Elementary School. Twelve families with 31 Angels came directly to our church.

A SHOUT OUT TO ALL LITURGISTS

Thank you for all your wonderful work during Advent and Christmas - Art and Environment for changing our banners, colors and Christmas Flowers. Music Ministers for choosing the relevant songs and doing them tastefully.

With Joy and Thanksgiving, I am pleased to share that St. Victoria Catholic Church has received a $1,500 grant from the Diocesan Fuel and Hunger Fund, made available through the generous support of The Bishop's Annual Appeal by the people of the Diocese of Richmond. These funds will be used as we continue our work with the poor, and will be applied to our Food Pantry Ministry and our Financial Assistance Ministry for fuel, utility, and housing. Thank you for your continuing support. Also, thank you to Krys for her guidance and help completing the grant application and to Father Jim for his guidance. Georgia Stromer
