Memorable Moments in Diocesan History - 1820 Bicentennial 2020 – 200 years

The Catholic population of Virginia expanded in the years following the Civil War, in part due to Irish immigrants who worked the railroads. Roanoke has long been “rail city,” but until November 19, 1882 the Catholic Mass had never been celebrated there. Fittingly, the city's first Mass was celebrated in a rail car: Shenandoah Valley Railroad Passenger Coach, number 6.
