Memorable Moments in Diocesan History

1963 was a watershed moment for civil rights in the diocese of Richmond. Bishop Russell wrote a pastoral letter on the subject that he required to be read aloud in all churches of the diocese. The same month, Dorothy Day—the founder of the Catholic Worker movement, whose cause for canonization is now under consideration—traveled to Danville to give a lecture in favor of integration and to participate in protests against segregation.

Turkey Angels Needed. We need 20 turkeys for our Christmas Outreach this year. We are hoping “Turkey Angels” will help by donating turkeys while they are on sale in November. Thank you for your prayers and consideration in helping with this ministry – Georgia

Thankful for the Work of Dr. Chene Heady

Dr. Chene Heady, a professor at Longwood University in Farmville, has been submitting a weekly paragraph on our diocesan history which is shared in our bulletin. We hope you have enjoyed them. As no one stepped up to be our bi-centennial person at St. Victoria, Dr. Chene has been doing it for both parishes. Dr. Chene has presented on EWTN and has been the Parish Council Chairperson at Our Lady of Peace during the past three years. He is a real gift to the Father McEleney Cluster. Let us get him as a guest speaker at St. Victoria soon!

2020 Annual Diocesan Appeal. At 10-22-2020, our parishioners have pledged 147% of our annual goal. Our goal was $4,990.00; and so far $7,130.00 has been paid or pledged. Congratulations! And, thank you!
