Memorable Moments in Diocesan History - 1820 Bicentennial 2020 – 200 years

During World War II, the Diocese of Richmond quickly expanded its ministries. Thousands of Catholic men from all over America were shipped to Virginia military bases to be trained, and chaplains took on the job of ministering to all of them. The first masses ever said at Blackstone's Memorial Armory and at the auditorium of Farmville State Teachers' College (now Longwood University) were conducted for soldiers stationed nearby. After contact with Catholic service members and chaplains, many Virginians became less hostile to Catholicism.

Are you curious about the Catholic Church? Why are Catholics always helping the poor? Why do they have the Lord's Supper or Communion every Sunday? And what is all this stuff about Mary? Call us at St. Victoria Catholic Church at 434-238-7030 or E-Mail us at jimg301@juno.com. Classes for those interested begin in late September. Maybe you are already a Catholic but were never 'Confirmed'. Contact us. We are here for you.
