Song Contest: Can you add another verse about Saint Victoria or Our Lady of Peace to our Diocesan's Anniversary Song? If so, Fr. Jim has a prize for you. Contest begins on the First Sunday of Lent which is March 1st.

New Added Verse to "We Shine Like the Stars"

By this time, you have been introduced to the Diocesan Bi-Centennial Anthem, "We Shine Like the Stars". Bonnie Toth, the music minister at Our Lady of Peace has added a new verse to the song about OLP. Fr. Jim thinks it is wonderful. It reads:

"We feed and clothe those needing and visit the ill and alone;
Eight Appomattox martyrs their light shines on and on!"

What will Saint Victoria's new verse look like?

Bi-Centennial Chairperson

We need a volunteer to be the chairperson for St. Victoria! See Fr. Jim or Krys. Chene Heady is the Bi-Centennial chairperson for Our Lady of Peace. His e-mail is headycr@longwood.edu

Memorable Moments in Diocesan History- 1820 Bicentennial 2020 – 200 years

The Daughters of Charity should perhaps be seen as the Civil War's truest heroes. Two hundred and twenty members of this order of nuns, founded by St. Elizabeth Ann Seton, risked their lives to tend to both Northern and Southern soldiers. Locally, just five Daughters of Charity ran a Lynchburg hospital that cared for one thousand wounded soldiers at a time.

March 8th, Second Week of Lent:

Please join us saying the following prayer and repeat daily this week.

PRAYER: LORD, in the barren places of our lives, I need Your soft touch and the hope of new life. Grant that this hope bud in me, Lord, let me also look to You for hope as my King. You are the model to follow and the goal to keep before me. You are with me on the journey of life, a journey that we experience in the spring full of new life. Grant me the grace to break through the walls that confine me to myself and keep me from fully loving you and fully serving others in Your Name. Lord, I offer my life to you. Amen

Lenten Symbolic Food Next week, March 15th, our symbolic food item will be pretzels. If you can make homemade pretzels that would be great. If not, your favorite store bought ones will do. To be shared after mass.
