There are just no words to express how grateful my family and I are for the people of St. Victoria. You have always been there to pray and give words of encouragement to me and my family, and my mother's death was not different. In the almost 50 years my parents attended St. Victoria, it was their life. They loved doing things for the church, and everyone was most appreciative of them. As Mom's mind deteriorated there was always one thing she never forgot, going to church! And she reminded us almost daily to pick her up for church. So thank you all for being there for Mom, for the wonderful meal you all prepared, and for the choir and Father Jim and Deacon John for such a beautiful celebration of her life! Dianna Lavoie
